Prague DDMs, i.e. Children and Youth Centers, are places that offer a wide variety of leisure time activities NOT ONLY for children and youth. DDMs are centers of fun and education, where people of all ages can explore their interests and develop their talents, and thus meaningfully spend their free time. Whether you're interested in IT, music, sports, arts, nature, technology, or science, you'll surely find what you're looking for in DDM!

DON'T SPEAK CZECH?

Currently, most information about DDM is in the Czech language only. However, DDM will be happy to welcome foreign newcomers and participants. If you don't speak Czech, you may use the free of charge services of intercultural workers. They'll be happy to accompany you to a DDM, help you understand the currently offered activities, help you with registration and deal with other necessary steps. You will find the list of intercultural workers and their contact information at the Prague for all website: www.metropolevsech.eu/en/kontakty/seznam-interkulturnich-pracovniku/.

DDM ACTIVITIES

CLUBS

Regular activities covering various topics, usually held once a week. Prior registration and participation fee payment is required (paid for one semester or one academic year).

CAMPS

Multi-day stays for children and youth with various themes and rich content. Overnight camps include accommodation, but participants of suburban camps stay at their homes overnight and return to the camp daily to attend the activities.

PUBLIC EVENTS

Themed programs, trips, festivals, exhibitions, theater plays, concerts, creative and other workshops, film screenings, seminars, and more.

COMPETITIONS

Sports, arts, knowledge, and more.

PUBLIC CLUBS

Public clubs offer FREE opportunities for children and youth to spend their leisure time, meet with friends, play, find out various information, or receive help when dealing with difficult life situations.

DDMs also offer the option to rent a place for use.

DDM branches are located throughout
