WHAT IS THE ECO-STUDIO?

The Eco-studio of the Prague City Gallery, located in the Troja Château's orangery, is a place where visitors can develop their creativity as well as a place to relax in the middle of a busy touristy part of the city. The studio is open for anyone interested, be it children, schools, families, adults, seniors, or visitors with special needs. We work with groups as well as individuals. The aim of our programs is to connect art with other important topics, such as ecology and environmental science. We use a wide variety of art techniques and various natural materials that allow us to shed a light on the topic of recycling. Visitors can, for example, try making handmade paper, work with ceramic clay or textile, do wax batik, create things out of natural materials, make experimental jewelry, try land-art, and more.

WHAT PROGRAMS DOES THE ECO-STUDIO OFFER TO THE PUBLIC?

Throughout the school year, we prepare art workshops and other special programs (e.g. activities during the Open Gardens Weekend or Troja Wine Festival) for families with children, adults, and everyone else interested. During the summer holidays (in July and August), we run all-day Summer Art Workshops. Several art stations, located in the Eco-studio throughout this event, introduce visitors to different art techniques and materials.

INFORMATION ABOUT PLANNED ACTIVITIES CAN BE FOUND ON OUR WEBSITE:

www.ghmp.cz/en/accompanying-events/ (see Accompanying Events). You can also contact our Education Department (contacts are in the flyer).

Even if you don't speak Czech yet, don't hesitate to visit us – our art activities don't require a lot of explanation. We'll be happy to show you everything and surely we can find a way to understand each other. We look forward to seeing you!
